

Logs for log walls and gables are linear foot. Pre-cut them to lengths allowing door and window openings. Dimensions are given to center line of all doors and windows. Refer to details shown on detail sheet to make allowances for door window rough opening frames as logs are circular length. Butt joints will be required. Refer to detail for proper technique.